STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The main object of this Bill is to deal with the nuisance of Public money-lenders in the City of Madras. Numerous complaints have been received by the Government that these money-lenders ill treat their debtors. It is reported that they freely resort to intimidation and threats of personal violence and that at times even criminal force is used by them for the recovery of their dues. There have been cases where in the absence of the debtors the members of their families have been intimidated and assaulted. Section 22 of the Bombay City Police Act (Bombay Act IV of 1902) gives power to the Police effectively to deal with cases of this kind. Under that section, the money lender can be ordered to conduct himself properly or quit the City. New section 51-A inserted in the Madras City Police Act, 1888 (Madras Act II of 1888) by clause 2 (a) of the Bill is on the lines of the Bombay section but is much narrower in scope. Action can be taken under the new section only if the Commissioner of Police is satisfied not only that alarm, danger or harm to person or property or the maintenance of any affairs involving violence will result from the acts or movements of a person, but also that witnesses are not willing to come forward to give evidence by reason of apprehensions to their personal safety. Action will be confined to persons who have not been seen in the City or in the neighbouring districts of Chingleput, North Arcot and Nilgiris. Before an order is passed against any person, he will be duly informed of the material allegations against him and given a reasonable opportunity of defending himself. Provision has been made for an appeal to the Provincial Government against the order passed by the Commissioner of Police. Courts will also have power to quash an order if the procedure laid down in the new section has not been followed, or if there is no material upon which the order could have been based, or if there were sufficient grounds for believing that witnesses will be unwilling to give evidence.

2. Another object of the Bill is to prevent the annoyance caused to neighbouring residents by the indiscriminate use of loud-speakers in public places, both in the City and in the suburbs. The use of sound-amplifiers will be controlled in the City by the Commissioner of Police, and in the suburbs by the District Superintendent of Police—see sub-clause (i) (b) and (c) of clause 1 which amend the Madras City Police Act, and sub-clause (d) of clause 3 which amends the Town Nuisance Act, 1889 (Madras Act III of 1889).

3. The definition of "public place" inserted in the two Acts to implement the amendment referred to in paragraph 2 there—see clause 1 (i) and 1 (c)—makes it possible to supply the language used in the Madras City Police Act and the Town Nuisance Act.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor)

P. APPU NAIR,
Secretary to Government, Legal Department.
